

See the eclipse in a whole new (absence of) light at sea

Join Princess on a cruise through a total eclipse near Spain in the Summer of 2026

Sail into the shadow of an astronomical event that has captivated humankind for millennia! Whether you joined Princess recently for their breathtaking viewing off the coast of Mexico or are still waiting to witness your first totality, seeing an eclipse from the deck of a ship is an experience unlike any other.

What better place to look up than Sky Princess®?

Unobstructed views abound from the top deck of this elevated member of the Princess® fleet. Gaze overhead (go on, safety glasses will be provided) while your captain charts a course for Northern Spain's clear skies to witness a full two minutes and 18 seconds of totality. Plus, enjoy eclipse-themed events and lectures on board – and all the award-winning dining and entertainment your ship has to offer – as you sail along one of the world's most beloved coastlines.

Iconic destinations that will not be overshadowed

Explore to your heart's content across seven vibrant ports: architecture both modern and classical, from Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao to the Ravalet Castle in Cherbourg and Roman ruins in Cartagena; maritime landmarks both natural and not, from the Rock of Gibraltar to the Roman lighthouse in La Coruña; and coastal hotspots both sleepy and sensational, from Malaga to Lisbon. With so much to see and do, the solar eclipse ends up being one of many high points on a cruise filled with them.
